

ARMY FOLK, WEST YSLETA CLUB MEMBERS, THE ELKS AND OTHERS DANCE IN HONOR OF HALLOWE'EN

By RUTH MONRO AUGUR.

VERY gay and jolly was the Halloween dance given at the officers' club at Fort Bliss, Tuesday night. The decorations were most elaborate and represented the Halloween spirit in a very effective way. Corn shocks and stalks of hay gave a rustic effect and everywhere about were Halloween Jack-o'-lantern lights, while strung back and forth across the hall were poverty cut paper streamers of orange and black with the Halloween symbols of witches, owls, bats, cats and all the other old Halloween devices in the paper. All the guests were armed with horns and novelty noise producers and they pelled each other good naturedly with showers of confetti in high carnival spirit. The seventh cavalry band played the dance music. All of the guests came in costume and masked and the ballroom presented a most picturesque appearance with the many quaint and unusual costumes and the variety of colors in the rustle of silks and satins. The glow of Jack-o'-lantern lights, big bonfires were built out of doors in front of the club and as the evening was mild the guests enjoyed playing about these in the dance intermissions. A very beautiful figure, "The Dance of Perrot and the Rose," was performed by Miss Genevieve Hornbrook and Lieut. John G. Burr. Miss Hornbrook wore a ballet dancer's costume of tulle in a pretty shade of rose pink; the skirt was formed of many ruffles and the bodice trimmed with green leaves. She wore a halo of pink tulle, made without a crown, and trimmed with pink roses and velvet streamers. Lieut. Burr was in the typical horror white and black costume. His satin suit ornamented with black pom-poms. Lieut. Isaac Spaulding, dressed as a negro minstrel, gave an exhibition of rattling the bones that was highly diverting. A number of professional cabaret entertainers amused the guests during the supper hour. The supper consisted of the usual things associated with custom to be eaten at the Halloween season. Supper was served at small tables. The dance was very largely attended by the El Paso and army people. On the committee in charge were: Capt. W. P. H. Godson, chairman; Capt. A. G. Fisher, Capt. John A. Wagner, Lieut. Stuart W. Cramer, Jr., T. H. Bess, Jr., Theodore Barnes, Jr., S. B. Hartz, Julian F. Barnes, Robert O. Annin, James K. Cochran and Robert B. Lorch.

Over 200 people attended the Halloween masquerade dance of the West Ysleta Country club Tuesday night, which was an unusually jolly affair. The 2nd Michigan Infantry band played the dance music, which was greatly enjoyed by the guests. The band was supplied through the courtesy of Lieut. Col. Westedge, of the 2nd Infantry. The big hall room was elaborately decorated. Corn shocks and willow tree branches filled the windows and on the floor about these were piled golden hued pumpkins and big squashes. About the walls was a fringe of orange and black Halloween witches, black cats, owls, bats and ghosts. During the evening vocal solos were given by J. W. Barra, tenor of the 15th Pennsylvania Infantry, and C. H. Miller, baritone, of the Second Pennsylvania Field artillery. Joseph A. Ballard, of the 15th Pennsylvania Infantry, accompanied them on the piano. The songs proved a very pleasant entertainment feature of the party. The majority of the guests came in costume. W. F. Payne, president of the club, wore a Klu Klux Klanman costume. Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Colman were dressed in Spanish costume. Mrs. F. Gurley, Mrs. Richard Knoblauch and Miss Mabel McMullen were dressed as little girls. Mrs. Gurley was "Miss Jane," Mrs. Knoblauch represented "School Days" and Miss McMullen was a ballet dancer. Mrs. H. J. McMullen and Mrs. G. W. Roberts were dressed as circus performers. Miss Corinne Smith was a Turkish girl. Mrs. David C. Bakeshaw was a Harlequin. R. W. Long represented a band master. Miss Beadie Gilson was a Yamma. Yamma girls, as they were many other elaborate and pretty costumes in evidence. Much fun was caused by Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Hill, who impersonated each other. When the masks were removed, the men who had been dancing with the women were discovered to be the same. A number of professional cabaret entertainers amused the guests during the supper hour. The supper consisted of the usual things associated with custom to be eaten at the Halloween season. Supper was served at small tables. The dance was very largely attended by the El Paso and army people. On the committee in charge were: Capt. W. P. H. Godson, chairman; Capt. A. G. Fisher, Capt. John A. Wagner, Lieut. Stuart W. Cramer, Jr., T. H. Bess, Jr., Theodore Barnes, Jr., S. B. Hartz, Julian F. Barnes, Robert

IT WILL PAY YOU TO REMEMBER

What You Want

WE know you want gentleness and utmost care in laundering your linen. —It's just as easy to be careful!

WE WANT YOU TO CALL

HOME LAUNDRY
LONG LIVE YOUR LINEN
EL PASO TEXAS
Phone 4300

"TIZ" FOR FEET

No More Sore, Tired, Tender Feet; No Puffed-up, Calloused Feet or Painful Corns—Try "Tiz"

Why go jumping around with aching, puffed-up feet—feet so tired, chafed, sore and swollen you can hardly get your shoes on or off? Why don't you get a 25-cent box of "Tiz" from the drug store now and gladden your tired feet?

"Tiz" makes your feet glow with comfort; takes down swellings and draws the soreness and smarting right out of feet that chafe, smart and burn. "Tiz" instantly stops pain in corns, callouses and bunions. "Tiz" is glorious for tired, aching, sore feet. No more shoe tightness—no more foot torture.

Get only "Tiz"—Advertisement.

Free Advice on Your Foot Troubles
By one of Dr. Wm. M. Scholl's Foot Specialists at
CHAS. ROKAHR'S BOOT SHOP
217-19 Texas St., Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday, Nov. 4-7-23.

GOLDEN COW BUTTER SHOP
BUTTER EGGS CREAM
BUTTERMILK Cottage Cheese
209 Mesa Ave.
Next to Kress's.

A very prettily arranged Halloween dance was given by Miss Sara Aronson Tuesday night at her home on California street. The house was decorated with Halloween decorations and streamers. Refreshments were served at intermissions between dances. Among those present were: Misses Nettie Rosenfield, Sadie Samuels, Sadie Capin, Rose Rosenfield, Lena Rosenfield, Lillian Snyder, Rose Bohn, Vera Patton, Emma Bohn, Jeanie Patton, Lena Hoffman, Ruth Glaser, Fanny Aronson, E. Ennis and Mrs. Della Ennis; Messrs. Geo. Bowers, Hyatt, F. Haykin, S. Brown, Sol Goldfarb, Ralph Aronson, Sam Rosenfield, Manual Jacobson, Fred Klinefelter, J. Ennis, Chas. Aronson, Samuel Aronson, Lawrence Aronson, J. Steinhilber, Herman Cooper, P. Page, H. Naege, Henry Blume, Louis Aronson and others.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reid entertained Tuesday evening at their home on National avenue. The house was attractively decorated in the Halloween streamers of orange and black and quantities of Jack-o'-lantern lights. Little ghosts were arranged in all the corners of the rooms. The table was in the center of the room. The decorations were of orange and black. The table was in the center of the room. The decorations were of orange and black. The table was in the center of the room. The decorations were of orange and black.

Halloween party was given Tuesday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Reuben Weinstein, at their home on North Oregon street, complimentary to Miss Hannah Weinstein, of New York, who is their daughter. The house was decorated with streamers of orange and black and Jack-o'-lanterns were used. The guests were Misses Weinstein, Irma Jacobson, Hilda Jacobson, Lillian Jacobson, Ethel Silberberg, Vetta Baran, Edna Freudenberger, Edna Malachuk and Selma Ziegler, Mr. and Mrs. Max Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. E. Meyer, Mr. and Mrs. J. Callisher, Mrs. Jennie Trocher, Messrs. Fabian Stoinoff, Paul Krupp, Louis Stoinoff, Louis Stoinoff, Henry A. Hill, Moore, B. Schwartz, Lawrence Callisher, Paul Krupp, Arthur Blumenthal, Arthur Blumenthal, A. Gold, Joe Wolff, Leo Kohlberg.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Jules Beiss, of Philadelphia, entertained the machine gun company of the sixth Pennsylvania Infantry, of which the sergeant is a member. Tuesday night at the company mess hall, at Fort Bliss, a Halloween party. The hall was decorated with Jack-o'-lanterns and streamers of pumpkin colored paper. An informal program of songs and songs solos were given. The guests were: Private Flannery, a clog dancer. A glee club of the soldiers sang and played. Halloween refreshments were served. The bugles of the regiment, dressed in Halloween ghost clothes, surprised the guests with a sirenade.

El Pasoans Returning.
Mr. and Mrs. David LeRoy Pickens have returned from their honeymoon trip to New Mexico.

Dances.
The regular weekly hop at the officers' club at Fort Bliss will be held as usual tonight.

Cold Weather Injures the Skin.
The advent of cold weather causes chapped hands and roughened skins have just what is required to offset these conditions.

We also remind you that El Paso women of refinement and culture draw fine line between the elegant and vulgar, and choose only those popular and toilet articles that are naturally accepted.

We are pleased to say that you will find in our display toilet waters, perfumes and face powders only such as will appeal to your refined taste.

Our stock of toilet goods include all of the popular brands, both domestic and imported.

Price, Service, Quality—the trinity that makes our three stores the most popular in town.

Scott, White & Co.
Mills Bldg. Roberts-Banner Bldg. Depot Pharmacy—Adv.

Why Not
Buy Navajo rugs now. We guarantee quality. Beach's Art Shop, City National Bank Bldg.—Adv.

"Miller Made" School Dresses to measure, good grade material, $2.50. Make Bungalow Aprons, House Dresses and Children's Rompers. The Miller Sewing Co., 205 East Missouri St. Phone 1872.—Adv.

Superfluous hair, moles and all facial blemishes removed. Features corrected. Miss Grace A. Benson, Face Specialist, 25 Buckner Bldg.—Adv.

Tenement Owners.
Are you getting all of the money your house should bring? Ask Lee Newman, 1 specialist on tenements. Phone 4604. 565 S. El Paso. (Advertisement.)

Lay the Foundation Right.
If you would build well, the foundation must be right. The superstructure will be as weak as the foundation.—Adv.

Why Not
See the new imported silk Kimonos at El Paso's Art Shop, City National Bank Bldg.—Adv.

Numerous Dinners Precede Costume Dance At the Fort

PRECEDING the Halloween party at Fort Bliss Tuesday night there were a number of informal dinner parties.

Ced. Charles W. Taylor and his daughter, Miss Alice Taylor, entertained at dinner at their home in Fort Bliss. The table was decorated with a pumpkin shell, in the center, filled with fruit. Surrounding this were red candles. Halloween novelties were the dinner favors. The guests were Capt. and Mrs. William C. Gardener, Capt. and Mrs. E. J. G. Mrs. Lillian Hagge, Capt. and Mrs. J. H. Taylor, Capt. James C. Rhea and Lieut. Weston M. Madgett.

THE DIAZ-DENTON DUO

OLIVER DIAZ.

RAPHAEL DIAZ, a native Texan, with a reputation as a tenor of great ability, accompanied by Oliver Denton, pianist, will arrive in El Paso tonight to give a concert here Friday evening at the Texas Grand for the benefit of the High school pipe organ fund. A committee of El Paso women have the arrangements in charge for the concert.

ceived the second prize. Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Woodard won the prizes for which the players cut. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Liefgreen, Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Tuttle, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Wilkes, Mr. and Mrs. G. C. Woodard, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Staples and Mr. and Mrs. Leo H. Hartford.

Mrs. V. A. Packer was the hostess at a Halloween party Tuesday afternoon for the members of the Jolly 100 club at her home on Myrtle avenue. Halloween witches, bats, cats, and quantities of autumn leaves, with red apples among them, formed the decorations. A witch in a little basket of autumn foliage told the fortunes of the guests as they arrived and presented them with their score cards for the sol games and witch's cats to bear during the party. Mrs. A. E. Mackie was the hostess for the Jolly 100 club at her home on North Florence street.

Mrs. V. A. Packer was the hostess at a Halloween party Tuesday afternoon for the members of the Jolly 100 club at her home on Myrtle avenue. Halloween witches, bats, cats, and quantities of autumn leaves, with red apples among them, formed the decorations. A witch in a little basket of autumn foliage told the fortunes of the guests as they arrived and presented them with their score cards for the sol games and witch's cats to bear during the party. Mrs. A. E. Mackie was the hostess for the Jolly 100 club at her home on North Florence street.

Numerous Children's Parties As Halloween Celebrations

RUTH McNARY was hostess at a very informal Halloween spook party Tuesday evening, at the home of her parents. Mr. and Mrs. James Graham McNary, on Arizona street. The guests all wore spook costumes and carried Jack-o'-lanterns and had a very jolly time playing Halloween games about the lawn and in the McNary home. Halloween refreshments were served later in the evening. Mrs. McNary assisted her young daughter in entertaining.

Miss Louise Robinson entertained with delightful Halloween refreshments Tuesday night at her home in the Robinson apartments in honor of her school friends of St. Joseph's academy. Dainty fortune telling and Halloween games were the amusement. A salad course followed the games. The guests were in costume. Kathryn Corbett wore a Scotch tartan. Maxine Moran was dressed as an Indian. Caroline Mourau was dressed as a French peasant. Ethel Davis and Mary Ford were in yamma costumes. Ada Mourau was dressed as a gypsy. Louise Robinson was dressed as a ghost. The Robinsons were assisted by their daughter in entertaining.

A Halloween party was given Tuesday night by little Wynetha White at her home on Magoffin avenue for the guests of her mother, Mrs. W. H. White. His parents, Dr. and Mrs. Hugh H. White, assisted the youngsters in having a happy time. The guests came dressed in Halloween costumes and had a lot of fun with their Jack-o'-lantern. Halloween games were played and refreshments were served. Those in the party were Billy Coles, Katherine Coles, Otis Coles, Jr., Gladys Brown, Neal Brown, Gates Davis and Lamar Davis Jr.

Little Elene Louise Vizcarra entertained her little friends with a Halloween party Tuesday night. Let her home on Montana street. Orange and black streamers extended from the chandeliers to the corners of the room. From the chandeliers were suspended large pumpkin Jack-o'-lanterns. Halloween games were played. Betty Quaid was the girl's prize and the boy's prize was a doll. The guests were: Billy Coles, Katherine Coles, Otis Coles, Jr., Gladys Brown, Neal Brown, Gates Davis and Lamar Davis Jr.

Mrs. J. T. Nash will entertain with an informal tea on Friday afternoon at her home 1115 Arizona street.

Mrs. W. W. Turney was the hostess at a luncheon given Tuesday afternoon at her home on Montana street complimentary to Mrs. H. T. Crawford and Mrs. Joseph H. Gay, of East Orange, N. J. who are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Harry S. Potter. The luncheon was the first of a series that Mrs. Turney is giving this season. Orange tulle bows tied the basket of fruit. The table was decorated with orange tulle bows tied the basket of fruit. The table was decorated with orange tulle bows tied the basket of fruit.

Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Nash will entertain with an informal tea on Friday afternoon at her home 1115 Arizona street.

How Do YOU Order Bread?

Do you say to your grocer, "Send me a 'loaf' of Bread?"

Or, do you say, "Send me a loaf of 'HOLSUM' Bread?"

There is a whole lot of difference in the way you order your Bread. And there's a whole lot of difference in what you get.

HOLSUM BREAD

Is Bread of Certified Cleanliness

It is made in a light, airy bakery with scarcely a touch of human hands, surrounded by every sanitary precaution that science can suggest.

The best of everything goes into HOLSUM. And then HOLSUM goes into a germ-proof, dust-proof wrapper that protects it from impurities and careless handling from the time it leaves our bakery until it reaches your table.

Ask for HOLSUM by Name

It's Made Clean—Sold Clean—Delivered Clean

At All Grocers

Baked By

HOLSUM

BAKING COMPANY

Copyright 1914

School Notes.

The Philomathean Literary society of the High school will entertain the mothers and friends of the society members with an informal program, to be given at the school Thursday afternoon after school. The mothers of the members will take part on the program. The program will include a piano solo by Mrs. C. E. Kelly, Mrs. J. A. Murdock will play a piano solo. Mrs. L. O. Hines will give a reading. Missa Edwards will play a violin solo. Mrs. C. March will play a piano solo. Mrs. M. O. Cheek will play a violin solo. The program will be given at the school. The program will be given at the school. The program will be given at the school.

Lodges and Clubs.

The B. V. P. U. of the Calvary-Houston Square Baptist church enjoyed a jolly Halloween party at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Howard, 1522 Montana street. Walter Scott, president of the union, Walter Scott, president of the union, Walter Scott, president of the union, greeted the guests at the door, welcoming them with a cold and clammy hand. Spooks and hobgoblins were hidden about among the foliage which decorated the rooms and the little lights were twinkled in the corners of the room. Miss Dillard Blankenship, dressed as a witch, presided over a big pumpkin cauldron, from which she drew little fortunes, painted by herself on cards, for the guests. Games of various kinds were the evening's amusements. In a hat making stall, Miss Alice Emerson won the first prize, a pumpkin pie. Lee Rhodes received the second prize, a doughnut. Much amusement was caused by a hunt in which the hunters found the trail in which the hunters found the trail in which the hunters found the trail.

(Continued on Page 14.)

Worth Careful Thought

Do you read the label to know whether your baking powder is made from cream of tartar or, on the other hand, from alum or phosphate?

Royal Baking Powder is made from cream of tartar, derived from grapes, and adds to the food only wholesome qualities.

Other baking powders contain alum or phosphate, both of mineral origin, and used as substitutes for cream of tartar because of their cheapness.

Never sacrifice quality and healthfulness for low price.

ROYAL BAKING POWDER CO.
New York

Ask For—Get

The Original

Nourishing

Delicious

Digestible

Safe Milk

For Infants, Invalids and Growing Children.

The Original Food-Drink For All Ages.

For Infants, Invalids and Growing Children. The Original Food-Drink For All Ages.

Rich Mils. Malted Grain Extract in Powder. Substitutes Cost YOU Same Price.

Herald Want Ads for results